THE NEW CODE.—The 15th of February has peen appointed as the day when citizens are to vote upon the adoption or rejection of this new code of laws for the District. Let those who would ugurate the odious practice of impris for debt, vote for this new code, and those who are opposed to the heathenish practice vote against its adoption. It will operate against the poor, and

More Persecution.—Six Americans were lischarged from the Washington Navy Yard on Saturday week, for no other reason than be cause they were members of the American party, or were suspected of sympathising with that party. Some of them have been employ-ed in the yard many years, giving satisfaction to officers of different administrations, winning golden opinions from them and all sorts of people by their attention to their work and devotion to their duties, public and private. Their names are Messrs. Cole, Carter, Sanderson, Cook, Forrester, and Smoot, most, if not all of these men, have families dependent upon them for bread, but what care the administration for them! Their little ones may cry for bread, but their voice of wanting will not be heard by the occupant of the White House, and if heard, would be unheeded; for the crime of membership with the American party is deep and damning in his eye! To avow oneself an American, is to invite persecution, and the pimps and spies who de the dirty work of men in power, are ever on the watch to catch an unwary word, and to tempt the unsuspecting into an expression of opinion, that they may inform against them, and hunt, them, hounded on by their employers, to the death in after years, when the history of this administration is written and read, it will be regarded as a light-spot upon the fair record of America's history.

Diameter of the cylinders, six-and-a-half inches. Length of stroke, nine es. Body built in the style generally known as the Philadelphia. Gallery with top stream painted crimson, shaded with chocolate, picked out with cold and ultra marine. Running gear, &c., light straw color, picked out with gold and blue. Sucking Arms polished hickory; the whole Engine mounted in brass. Springs and axles, painted black and lacquered. The panels and sides are decorated with four magnificent paintings on copper by the artist, B. H. Murray, of Philadelphia. In front is represented Liberty unveiling a statue of Washington. In the after panel is an emblematic picture of the "Union of Liberty and America." On the sides are two rull length female figures, one representing "the Union leaning on a bundle of rods," inscribed with the names of the States,—the other bearing the Cornucopia, representing the

Mr. FERTON.—On Saturday night, December 19th, a party of men belonging to the Western Hose, went into Mr. Boulanger's Restaurant, in the First Ward. A gentleman came down stairs, and placed a very fine fat goose in the bar for safe ng, but had scarcely turned his back to speak to a friend, when the goose was non est. Inquiry being made, it was found that one of the gentlemen present had offered the identical goose for sale at a neighboring restaurant. The owner of the goose charged the party with having stolen it, when one of the number came forward and offered to pay for it, which was declined.

One of those startling and painful stories which occasionally come to light, to expose the evils of the system of the Romish Church, and to afford a momentary insight into the Mysteries of the Institutions directly or indirectly connected therewith, has recently been revealed at East Grimstaad, in the county of Sussex, England. The story in brief is as follows:

There is a Romish or Puseyite convent at East Grimstaad, called St. Margaret's one of the sisters of which was a Miss Arthur, who before her admission had formed a friendship with Miss Scobell, a young lady of quick linagination and strong religious impressions, the daughter of the Rev. John Scobell, rector of the adjacent parish. After gaining Miss Scobell's confidence, it appears that Miss Arthur opened a correspondence with her, and first by hints and then by open persussion, endeavored to persuade that young lady to enter the convent, adding that Miss Hughes, the Lady Superioress, wanted some one to come and live with her who had pecuniary means, as Miss Scobell was known to have to a large amoust. The request was made known to Mr. S. by his daughter, but he carnestly refused his permission. The father, in the course of a touching narrative, says:

My refusal of consent appeared to be conclusive. Miss Marian Hughes, S. M., wrote to me herself; and this first attempt to take my daughter from me was defeated. The next step brings me nearly towards the close of the year 1854, when a young female, habited in black of peculiar style, took up her residence at the White Hart, at Lowes. I was at that time frequently visiting a certain bedridden parishioner, and so likewise was my daughter, who had always been assiduous among the poor. This lady, whose name was Miss Wilkins, called on me, and stated that at Oxford she had heard of this person—that she had known her in her early life—that she was desirous of visiting her, and requested my consent and permission. I said that to visit a fellow creature in sickness and sorrow was a duty open to every Christian.

Finding that their efforts to induce Miss Scobell to join the convent, did not progress as satisfactorily as they could wish, a conspiracy was formed in which a priest, the Rev. J. M. Meade, took a prominent part, and clandestine laterviews were arranged between him and the intended victim, during which the corruption of her mind was com-pleted; and the priest, in connection with Miss Greame, one of the heads of the convent, succeeded in persuading the unhappy young lady to pay an experimental visit to St. Margaret's, against the earnest protestations of her father. This was in August last.

In six weeks she was persuaded to become a nun, taking the name of Sister Amy. There was an epidemic fever. She caught it and was prostrated. Her father visited her, medical skill triumphed, and the immediate danger was over, and a promise was made to Mr. S., who was then at Brighton, but a short distance off, that if there was any change for the worse, he should be immediately informed. Previous to her entering the institution she had promised her father that nothing should tempt her to alienate her present or future property. A change for the worse did come, and for several days it was known to Mr. Neale and Miss Greame, that she was sinking and that there was no hope of her recovery. But no word was sent to her father. The lady died on the 13th of the month. An 9 o'clock on the night of the 12th the medical man pronounced her dying. Still no massage was sent. At half-past five a message was sent by railroad. At eight o'clock a telegraphic despatch. But to neither of these would it be possible for Mr. Scobell to respond in person until late in the afternoon. At half-past five a message was sent by railroad. At eight o'clock a telegraphic despatch. But to neither of these would it be possible for Mr. Scobell to respond in person until late in the afternoon. At half-past five a message was dead. Mr. Scobell arrived, his daughter was dead. Mr. S. says:

For the first time in our lives we were introduced to Mr. Neale. He spoke no word of sympathy, sorrow, or regret. I expressed my wish to have back the remains of my child. He said he was executor, and Miss Greame was executrix; that my wish was also my daughter's but it was not material and should not be complied with unless certain peculiarities of burial, which she had agreed to and wished, and to which he thought I should be likely to object, were permitted. I made enouiries and Mr. Neale then produced to mein August last.

Many mills have ceased working, many more are working short time, and the recovery from the present state of depression will probably be slow and unsatisfactory. The Bank of France has announced a further reduction in the rate of discount. The rates hereafter will be 6, 7, and 8 per centum for bills having respectively not to run more than 80, 60, and 90 days. The stock of bullion in the Bank of France is teadily on the increase; it now amounts to nine millions sterling, and, according to the last return of the bank, the discounts have decreased considerably—to the extent, it is said, of nearly two million sterling.

ANOTHER PORTRAIT OF "A MODEL RE PUBLIC" UNDER DEMOCRATIC RULE.

"We, of the old Republican party, used to charge the Federalists with infidelity to our free institutions when they maintained that the people were their own worst enemies. But the rapid growth of crime, and the defiance of law and order which have recently written the annals of our free country in blood, would go a good way to prove that there was more truth in the imputed Federal dogma than was conceded by their political adversaries. Pitched battles with fire-arms now take place in our cities, not only in the darkness of night, when ruffianism was wont to cloak its crimes, but in open day, among citizens of the same town, and without any rational cause that would justify even a fair round of boxing. The untrammelled freedom of elections, heretofore the boast of our country, is suppressed by armed mobs, and a man now advances to the polls to give his vote at the hazard of his life .- Nat. Int.

ANOTHER PORTRAIT OF A "MODEL RE-PUBLIC" UNDER DEMOCRATIC RULE. "The city of Washington was on Saturday night the scene of riot, bloodshed, and pillage. Hun-dreds of armed ruffians held possession of the streets, and fire-arms were heard in various quar-

"THE TIMES IN NEW YORK -The unemployed and hungry are holding open-air meetings, de-manding what they call their rights. THANK GOD! NO NATIVE BORN AMERICANS ARE YET OF THE SAME OPINION AS TO THEIR RIGHTS, BECAUSE TO BE OF THAT OPIN-ION ARGUES ONE TO HOLD TO THE DOC-TRINES OF DANTON, ROBESPIERRE, AND THE QUITE AS DANGEROUS SOCIALISTS OF LATER TIMES. THEY TALK IN THEIR FIERCE APPEALS OF GOVERNING CLASSES IN THIS COUNTRY, WHICH PROVES THAT THEY ARE PERSONS WHOLLY INCAPA-BLE OF APPRECIATING THE THEORY AND PRACTICE OF OUR GOVERNMENT-THAT THEY ARE AMONG US, BUT NOT OF US."- Washington Evening Star, November 6, 1857.

DAGUERREOTYPE OF "THE FEDERAL CITY" UNDER DEMOCRATIC RULE. We have nothing to regret but the brawls and acts of violence which have of late tarnished the reputation of the Federal City by the gangs of rowdies who nightly infest our streets. They have, step by step, grown bolder and more defiant until they now trample the laws under foot without the slightest apprehension. Continued immu-nity from punishment always invites the repeti-tion of offences. The insubordinate spirits in this city have become more reckless, and their viola tions of order and the public peace more glaring. Washington Union. PORTRAIT OF A CITY UNDER DEMO

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of Nine York City.

"Not only are your Phils admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Knox, of St. Louis.

"The Phils you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspection and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHERA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your Phils have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteems as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhosa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

Internal Obstruction—Worms—Suppression.

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION-WORMS-SUPPRESSION. From Mrs. E. Stuart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILIS, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanase the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other two reactivets."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS. From Dr. J. P. Vaught, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiceness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe contineness to originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

From Dr. Emerica Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your Pills purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. They stimulate the excretories, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"DRIS DR. AYR: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILIS better than to say all that we ever treat with a purpative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my delly contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILIS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

AP Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incartious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Aver's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfests, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for Coucans, Colde, Hoarseness, Astraca, Chour, Whooring Couca, Bronchers, Inchrists Consumerios, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the affilted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pettoral is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependance on what men of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the dangerous affections of the lungs yield to it; if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know; in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to makkind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

Geo'town, o28-3w. FIRE INSURANCE. THE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY of the District of Columbia offers to the property owners of the District the cheapest and as safe means of insurance against loss by fire as any other company, as will appear by an examination of its principles.

The fact that all of the Insurance Companies of the District are declaring large dividends to their stockholders, at once shows the great profit on their premiums, and the consequent saving to persons insuring with this company.

The actual cost of insurance in this company the past year has been but nine cents on each $100 for first-class property, and on other property in proportion.
